

Coaching Institute Document Folder and Pre-Institute Activities

What's in the Document Folder	What is it	What to do
Blueprints for Change, Solutions Within	Action Planning guide that contains a template for empowering you and your organization to address systemic barriers.	Print. You will use this for action planning guide during Day 2 of the Institute.
CI Document Folder		Review so you know what's in this folder for you.
CI Presentation Criteria and Homework Page	This document contains the presentation criteria and activities you will do before and throughout the Institute.	Print. Become familiar with this document so you are prepared for your initial presentation and ready to ask any questions to help you feel most prepared.
Coaching Institute - Participant Agenda	Institute agenda.	Print.
Communicating and Relating Across Poverty Barriers	Learning guide that outlines the principles of Oral and Print Communication Styles.	Read.
Honoring Dr. Beegle's Life Work - Noncompete form	Dr. Beegle is excited for you to assist her in her life's dream to create poverty-informed people and organizations that fight poverty, not the people living in it. This document asks that you share her work only within your organization and that you do not charge for your poverty-informed presentations. You are allowed to invite community partners to join workshops or presentations using her work. We ask that you sign the Non-Compete form and use Dr. Beegle's life work ethically and with citations within your organization. Once we have your	Print and review the document. Sign and return to Debbie@combarriers.com signed non-compete, we will send your certification as a Beegle Poverty Coach.

Iron Cage Gen	Learning Guide that covers the foundational pieces of Dr. Beegle's work.	Read.
Johnson's War on Poverty	Paper outlining the President Johnson's anti-poverty initiatives.	Read.
Overcoming the Silence of Generational Poverty	An article that summarizes Dr. Beegle's dissertation.	Read.
Poverty Institute Guide	You might want to refer to this when crafting your presentation.	Bring the copy you got at the Poverty Institute with you to the Coaching Institute.
The Crossing	An article about Dr. Beegle's life.	Read.